Fifth Volume of 20 Beautiful Women Continues to Make an Impact

Ft. Lauderdale, Florida (March 20, 2018) – The fifth volume of the Amazon best seller 20 Beautiful Women is already making an impact following its release on February 27, 2018.

Just days after launching on Amazon, the book hit # 1 in Motivational, #1 in Women's Personal Growth, #2 in the Self Help Category in the US and # 2 in Personal Transformation in the UK. The new volume is a collection of personal short stories from 20 more authors, speakers, and life coaches bonding together for the common goal of sisterhood, and to transform women from the inside out.

20 Beautiful Women: 20 More Stories That Will Heal Your Soul Ignite Your Passion and Inspire Divine Purpose Volume 5 was compiled by Award Winning Best-Selling Author and Publisher, Saba Tekle to empower and foster healing in the lives of readers. Commenting on the success of the series, Tekle said: “Since the release of “20 Beautiful Women, Volume 1,” an organic movement has taken form. More women all over the world have joined us and I believe it’s because they found strength in sharing their stories. I believe it is from seeing the strength and courage that was shown by all the women that came before them. There is always strength in numbers.”

Like many bestsellers, 20 Beautiful Women has received a fair share of the spotlight. The book has been featured in the Huffington Post, HLN's “The Daily Share” and BuzzFeed, as well as many other media outlets. The book inspired the #20BeautifulWomen Challenge, in which over a million women participated. It also won an award for best script at the 2016 New Media Film Festival. But that's not all. 20 Beautiful Women is also set to be made into a documentary that everyone can contribute to.
